

Fact Sheet

The Web Anywhere: Access the Internet on your laptop through your BlackBerry® smartphone data plan

Easy Setup and Use: Download Tether to your BlackBerry® and laptop... then surf the web

Fast Speeds: Download speeds limited only by the wireless network

Affordable: A one-time fee of $49.95 USD, no monthly fees

Product Info

- Tether allows you to use your existing BlackBerry smartphone data plan to access the internet on your computer or laptop.
- Tether helps users connect their laptop to the Internet via their Smartphone, maximizing the data plan they are already paying for.
- With Tether, you are able to access high speed internet that is as fast as any solution available, anywhere you can get cell phone reception.
- Tether enables users to quickly connect through their cell phone for an affordable one-time fee.
- Tether is seamlessly usable across all carriers, without the hassle of having to change settings.
- Tether's download process is simple and be installed in minutes on both your smartphone and laptop.
- Tether works via a USB cord, or can be configured to work wirelessly over Bluetooth.
- The Tether software can support both PCs and Macs and is compatible with all Blackberry smartphones.
- Tether eliminates the need for the traveling user to create a new profile for each network they encounter.

Company Info

- Tether has attracted worldwide media attention, including coverage in The New York Times, Entrepreneur Magazine, and has already been sold to tens of thousands of users.
- Tether was sited as one of the Top 10 Canadian ICT companies to watch and was the overall winner of Nova Scotia's I-3 Competition in 2010.
- In 2009, Tether was listed in the BlackBerry AppWorld and is presently in the final stages of becoming a Blackberry Alliance Member.
- Tether has recently launched versions for the Macintosh platform as well as the Android beta.
- Tether reached the number one spot for paid apps on BlackBerry App World and is a sponsor at WES 2010.
- Tether is privately owned, and based in Halifax, Nova Scotia in Canada.

Try Tether for yourself – www.tether.com